Your Personal Information

- ☐ I am happy to be contacted by The Herb Society by email and email newsletters about conservation, membership, fundraising and other activities.
- ### Gift Aid

Gift Aid raises more funds for The Herb Society without costing you a penny more. If you're a UK taxpayer we can reclaim the tax on your membership subscriptions and donations.

For every £1 you give, we can claim a further 25p from HM Revenue and Customs. All we need is for you to tick this box.

☐ I would like The Herb Society to reclaim the tax on any eligible donations or membership subscriptions that I have already made or will make until further notice. I confirm that I pay at least as much UK income or capital gains tax as will be reclaimed by all charities* on my donations in each tax year (currently 25p for every £1 you give).

*Including Community Amateur Sports Clubs; please note that other taxes such as council tax and VAT do not qualify.

The Benefits of Membership

In addition to supporting the work of the Herb Society, members also receive:

- Herbs, the Society's acclaimed journal
- Regular E-newsletters and Bulletins
- Exclusive Member Benefits including special offers and discount codes
- Reduced fees at Herb Society events
- Invitations to Members' Day and the Annual Gathering
- Membership of Local Groups around the country for networking with other people interested in herbs
- Volunteering opportunities, including supporting stands at garden shows and festivals

Additionally, each year the Herb Society supports a number of education and community projects around the country.

In 1927 Hilda Leyel founded the Society of Herbalists, which would later become the Herb Society, with the aim of supporting the practice of herbal medicine in Britain.

Today it aims to:

- Increase the understanding and use of herbs for health and well-being
- Provide information, knowledge and news on all aspects of herbs
- Bring together all those with an interest in herbs, from the amateur to the professional
- Provide a worldwide forum for the exchange of ideas and information
